'Warrior'

October 30th 2021

Cheri Lyn, quite possibly the next big noise on the Blues scene, releases her debut album 'Warrior' on October 30th this year.

The album will also be released as a vinyl and in all digital stores and contains 10 songs, the core message being one of Inner Strength...and Love, which is the strongest emotion of all!!

The album title 'Warrior' relays the message Cheri wants to send out to the world – everyone has that warrior inside! It is the very essence of the person who stands up for themselves, who never gives up. The person who unconditionally loves someone, commits themselves to another, like a mother does for her child. It's those little deeds that can make people turn into true Warriors!

And Cheri's debut album has the ability to empower people, to enable that self-belief. The message is clear – believe in yourself, listen to your heart and never, ever give up.

Cheri Lyn is a true Warrior, and on October 30th we can join her crusade to bring self-belief and inner-strength to the world!!

The story behind some of the songs....

‘Woman’ – After I watched a theatre drama, called ‘The Witch Process’, I got upset about the fact that women have been suppressed and tortured so many times throughout history – and still are! With this song I want to create awareness about diversity and I want to call out for tolerance and equal rights! It is produced as a powerful, bluesy Pop tune with innovative beats and tribal sounds a la ‘Freedom’ by Beyonce.

‘The Way I Am’ – As the title says it, I want to create awareness that people shouldn’t care about what others think of them. Everyone is allowed to be themselves and everyone is different, and that is okay. ‘The Way I Am’ is a powerful and handmade Blues/Rock tune which we recorded live and in one take at the legendary Kangaroo studios in Karlsdorf, Germany

‘Little Love’ – The album has a good mixture of engaging power songs and heart touching ballads. ‘Little Love’ is a beautiful piano ballad with big harmonic choirs that reminds its listeners of that exciting beginning time when you fall in love with somebody. It starts with a little love but you wish it would become something bigger and everlasting. It should also create awareness, that love is the most powerful and beautiful emotion we have.
